SUMMER READING 2009

Eudora Welty said, “Every story would be another story and unrecognizable if it took up its characters and plot and happened somewhere else...Fiction depends for its life on place.” The location of a story’s actions, along with the time in which it occurs, is the setting.

Part I. From each novel you have read this summer, find three quotations (other than those in Spark Notes or any other novel guide) that reflect the importance of setting to the meaning of the story. Then, in good paragraph form, briefly discuss the relevance of each quotation.

(You must include correct MLA documentation for each novel and a page number for each quotation.)

Part II. Determine your favorite character within the novels you read and choose a song that reminds you of that character. Include the lyrics and explain the connection between the song and the character.

Type this assignment and turn it in the first day of classes. ENJOY!
